

Idea Submission and Feedback Policy of ICARE Technologies

Neither ICARE Technologies nor any of its employees may accept or consider unsolicited ideas, including comments, contributions, ideas, opinions or feedback of any kind, including those of a technical, artistic, original or inventive nature ("Idea"). If, despite our request not to send us an Idea, you still wish to submit such an Idea to us, the following conditions shall apply imperatively and in all circumstances to your Idea.

You hereby agree that any Idea that you submit to us shall not be treated as confidential information and that ICARE Technologies shall not be compelled or obliged to consider your Idea. Any Idea that you submit to ICARE Technologies shall become the exclusive property of ICARE Technologies and if an Idea is of a physical nature, ICARE Technologies shall have no obligation to return it to you or to certify the destruction of its material components.

Except as otherwise required by law, you agree that ICARE Technologies shall be free to exploit, redistribute and disclose any Idea that you submit to us, without restriction or limitation and for any reason or purpose whatsoever, without giving you notice or compensation of any kind. You hereby agree to release ICARE Technologies from any and all liability arising from the receipt, review, use, distribution or disclosure of all or part of your Idea in connection with any Product or Service.
